

The University of New South Wales
School of Psychology

Colloquium Series

2011 Second Semester

Room 1016, 10th Floor, Mathews Building

Day: Wednesdays

Time: 3.30pm

Refreshments will be served following each presentation

Date	Speaker	Affiliation	Title	Chaired by	Assisted by
20 July	Richard Ebstein	National University of Singapore	The genetics of human social life: Of mice (voles) and men	Mark Dadds	--
27 July	Brian Byrne	University of New England	The "learning" in "learning disabilities": Insights on the behaviour-genetics of reading from a study of twin children	Peter Lovibond	Sarah Krigstein
3 August	Nicholas Price	Monash University	Timescales of neuronal activity and decision making	Ehsan Arabzadeh	TBA
10 August	Felicia Huppert	Cambridge University	Flourishing: The science of well-being and why governments care	Jacqueline Cranney	TBA
17 August	TBA
24 August	Yaffa Yeshurun	University of Haifa	TBA	Branka Spehar	TBA
31 August	June Gruber	Yale University	Can feeling good be bad? Applying insights from affective science to positive emotion disturbance	Joe Forgas	TBA

MIDSESSION BREAK
14 September	Andy Baker	McGill University	Causal reasoning: Inferences are rules in the world not in your head	Simon Killcross	TBA
21 September	Ben Newell	University of New South Wales	Thinking about climate change	TBA	TBA
28 September	Irina Harris	University of Sydney	Integrating different visual attributes into a coherent object percept	TBA	TBA
5 October	TBA
12 October	Tamara Watson	University of Western Sydney	Sensory processing in psychosis	Joel Pearson	TBA